I was mistaken the other day. We took all the liquids to Lone Star, non-haz and haz. I didn't have an account with Lone Star at the time and I used a broker and his price was $0.11/gal for non-haz and $0.41/gal for haz. So 15-20% less was about their cost, a year ago.

Greg:

What type of pricing did you get for these two companies per gallon?
I think you told me you sent haz to Lonestar and non-haz to Newpark.

Thanks
